Customary Land Ownership in Uganda and the SDGs

Table of contents

- ZOA
- SDGs within the project
 - SDG 1, 2 & 5
 - Other important SDGs
- ZOA in Nwoya District
 - Land Security and Economic Development project Nwoya
- CCO
 - Pro's and con's CCOs

ZOA

- ZOA is an international relief and recovery organization supporting vulnerable people affected by violent conflicts and natural disasters in fragile states.

SDGs within the project

Particularly three SDGS have a land target:

- 1. No Poverty
 - Do-no-harm principle
- 2. Zero Hunger
 - Direct and indirect contribution
- 5. Gender Equality
 - Unequal land access for women
 - Promote awareness

Other important SDGs

- SDG 16. Peace, justice and strong institutions.
- By improving the capacity of the government, the rule of law of Uganda will also be improved.

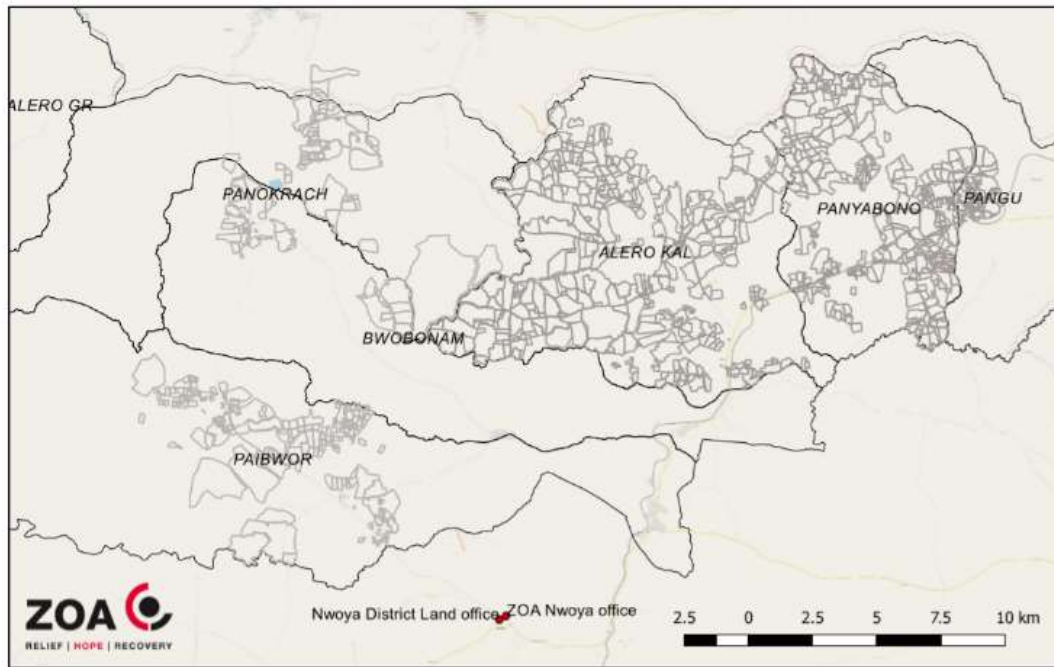

Land Security and Economic Development Project

Land rights component

- Enhance land tenure and security
- Land dispute mediation
- Land tenure registration and certification (CCO)

Certificate of Customary Ownership (CCO)

Demarcated parcels in Alero and Lungulu
April 2018

- A CCO is an official state document, indicating the owner of the land
- Area Land Committee

Certificates of Customary Ownership (CCO)

- ZOA's role as facilitator
 - Bringing together partners
 - Promote awareness
 - Training of implementers

Pro's and con's CCO

- Pro's of CCOs
 - CCO cheaper than a title.
 - Participatory mapping.
- Challenges of CCOs
 - How are vulnerable groups protected?
 - Whose names will be on the CCO?

Conclusion

- The relationship between SDGs and the project is implicit.
- If you want to improve land governance, people need to find each other and work together.
- We work on one part of the puzzle; CCOs.
